The Breaking Point

This is it! As Pomp and Circumstance plays in the background, we leave the cathedral to celebrate with our friends and families. We have in our hands that important piece of paper that signifies four years of sweat and tears: the high school diploma. We realize the world is wide open to us now, and we can travel in any direction we want. But where do we go from here? We have reached another Breaking Point in our lives.

The Breaking Point

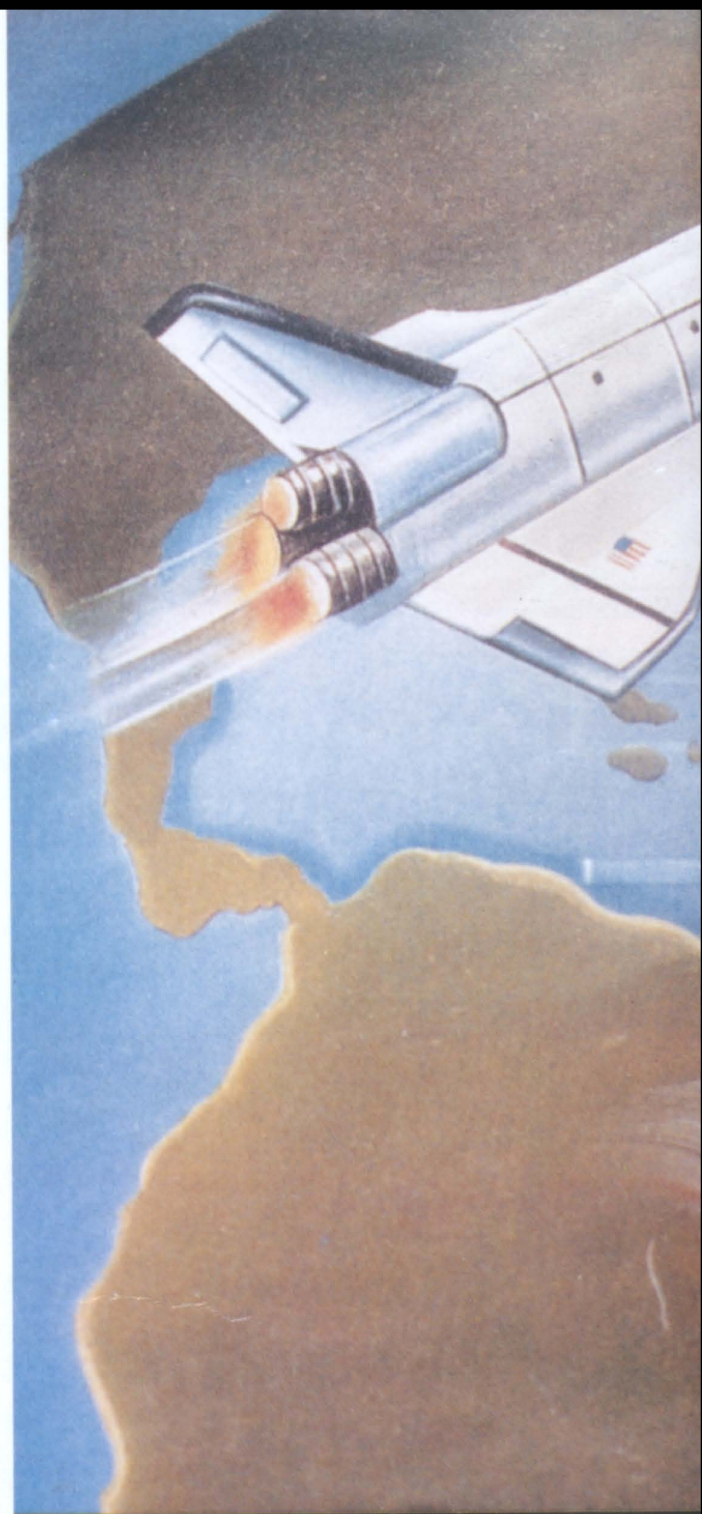

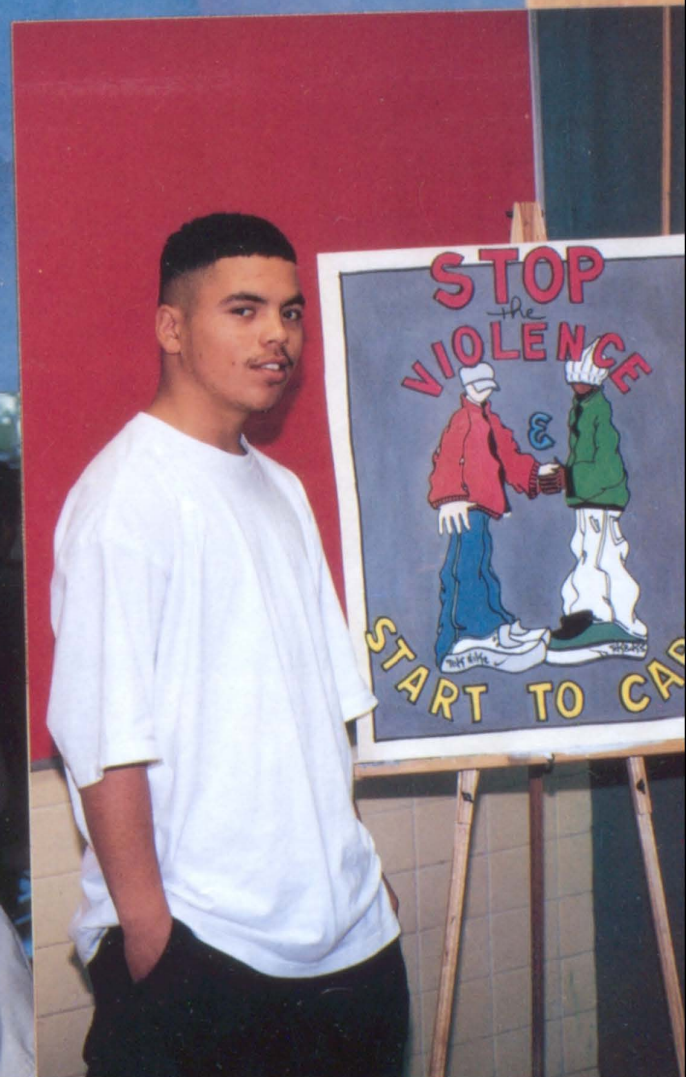

Making the break from our younger years, we learned that teachers were not just faucets of information, but they were our second parents, and our friends too. Many have extended themselves in a variety of ways, just to help us graduate. Some day, when we return to visit Barringer, eager to share our new experiences, they will enjoy discussing with us our adjustment to post-high school life. We'll never forget their dedication, because the knowledge that they have given us will last a lifetime.

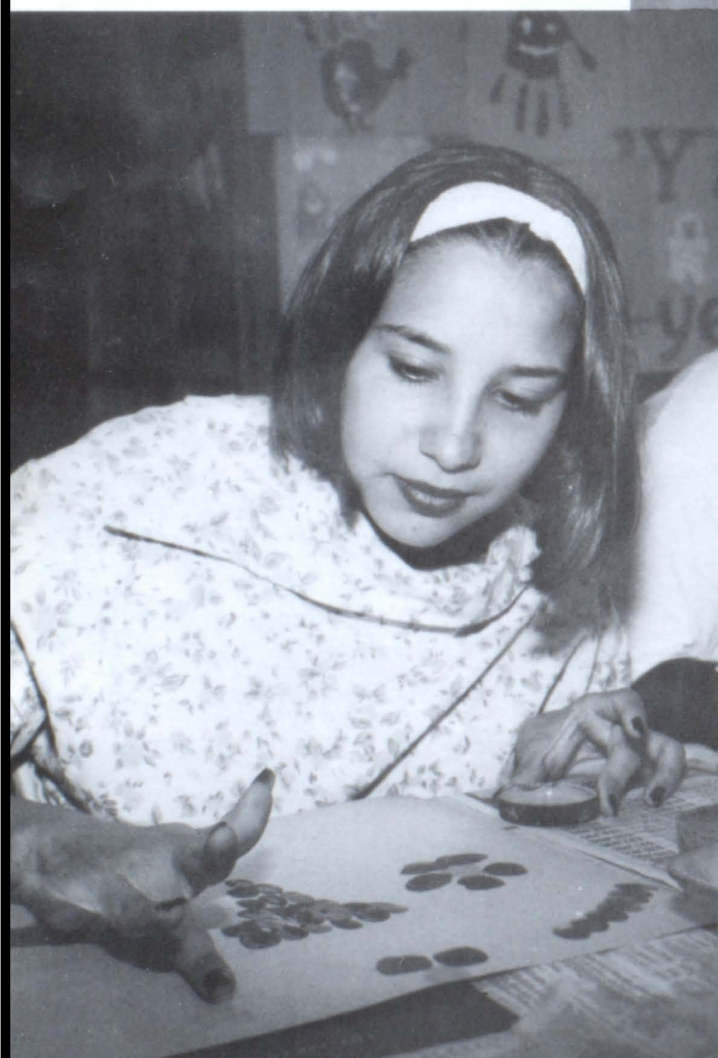

The Breaking Point

We arrived as freshman young and naive, anticipating our new experiences. As students in junior high school, we often wondered what life was like at the senior high. Now that we have just completed our final year, we can't help but reflect on how much we've progressed since those early years. As graduates, we are older and more mature, and we now realize the importance of the breaking point from elementary school, and the significance of elevating to high school.

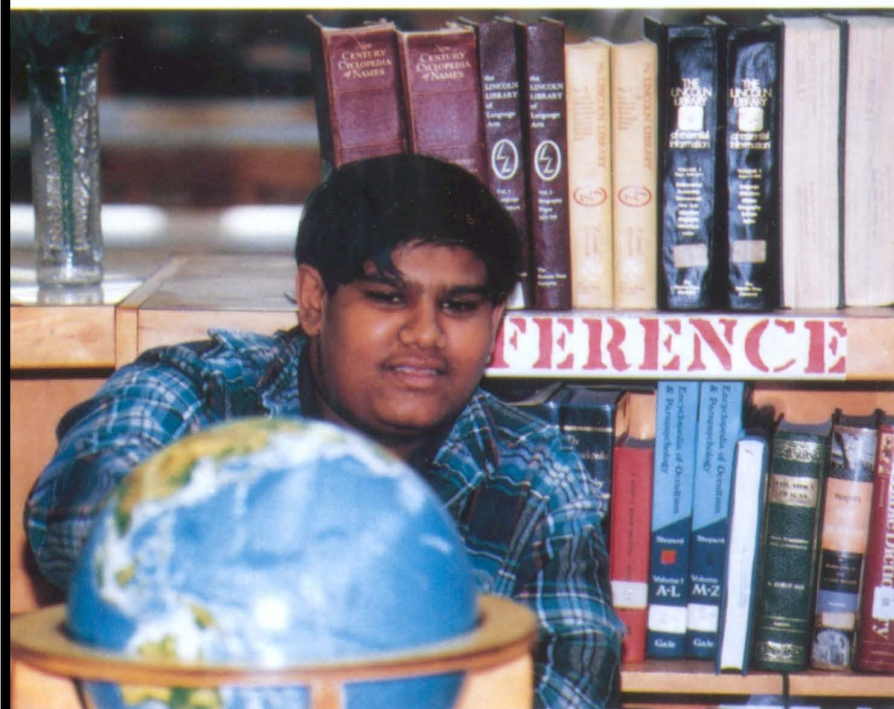

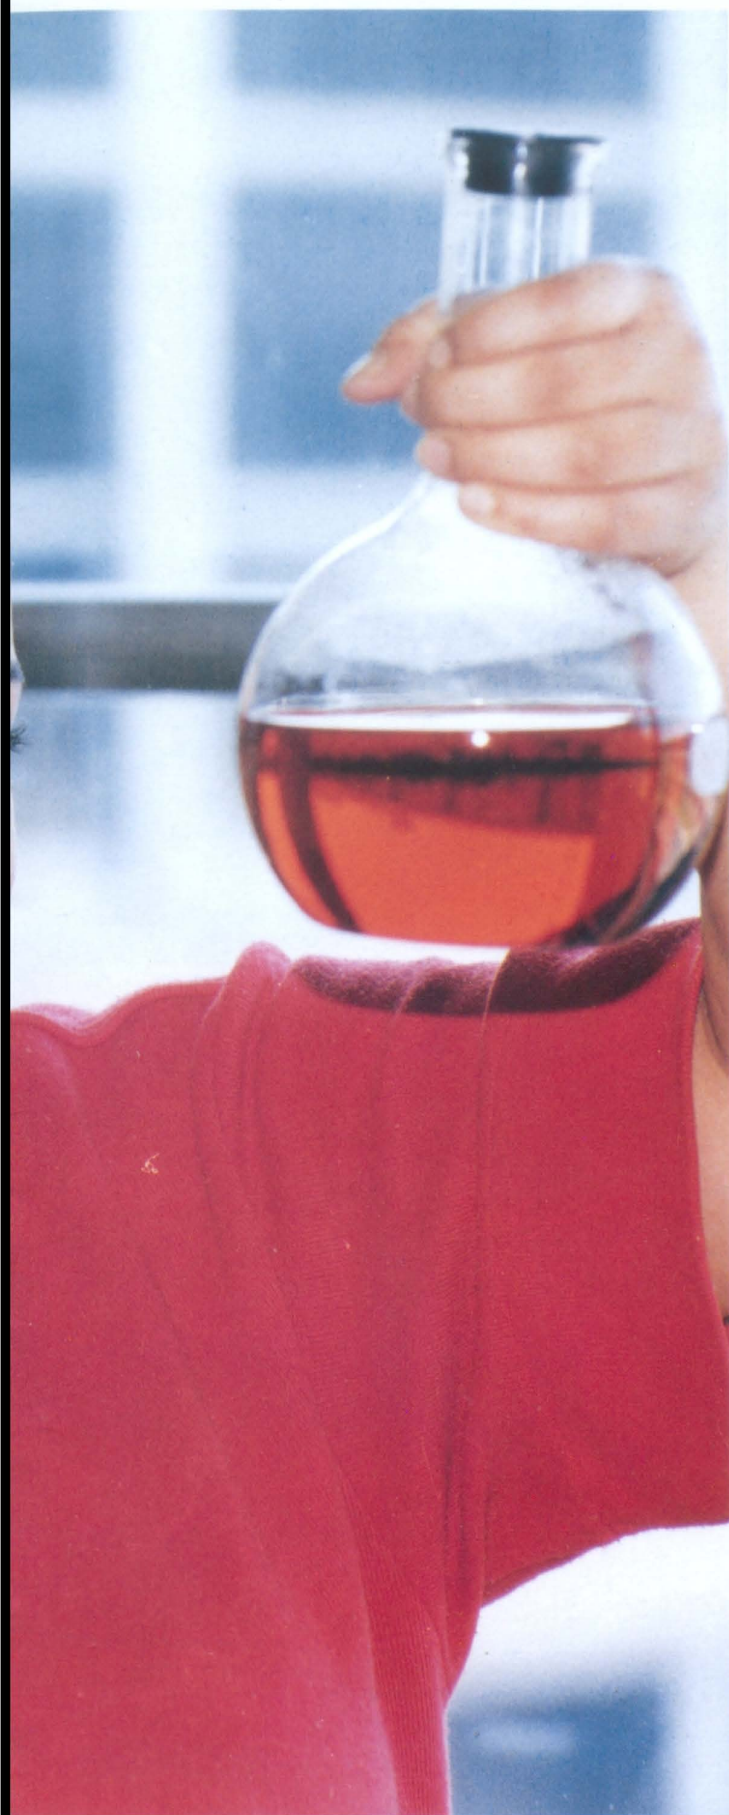

The Breaking Point

We have formed close friendships and relationships that have influenced our lives. And as we move on to college, or a career, some of those individuals that we have come to know so well, will be leaving our lives forever. As we break with the past, we will never forget them, or the memorable experiences we shared. If it is within our destiny to cross paths with the others, let's remember that although we thought this trip would never end, be glad we made it with a friend.

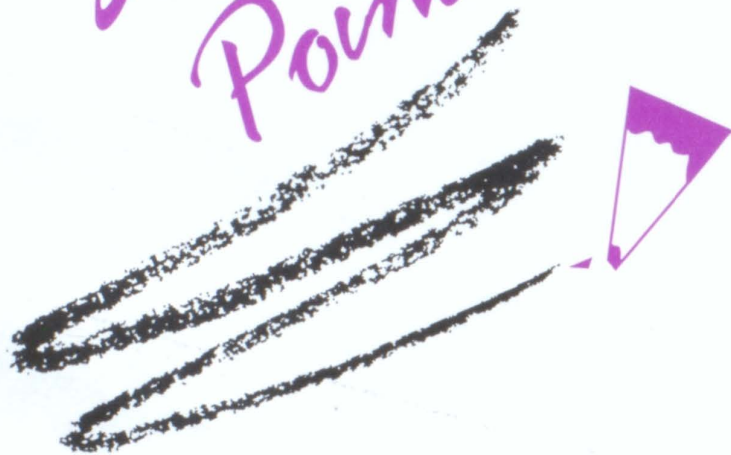

The Breaking Point

In the past four years, we have cultivated relationships that reflect the diversity of the neighborhood surrounding Barringer. Besides our school's rich tradition and heritage, Barringer's student population is infused with a variety of faces and backgrounds. Developing friendships with students of various cultures, has given us the opportunity to understand and appreciate our differences and similarities. It has indeed been a pleasure to attend a school that is so multi-cultural.

The Breaking Point

Attempting to get to school by 8:30AM, was one of the many adversities we faced during this school year. Once we were x-rayed by the scanner, we had to sneak to the locker, so as not to get snatched by the guards, and to ensure our locker wouldn't be terminated. Through foggy, bloodshot eyes, we found our first period class, and ran to our seat quietly, so that our teacher wouldn't turn from the board, notice that we were tardy, and give us EMD (Early Morning Detention).

Graphic Arts

The Breaking Point

In our classroom activities, we attempted to break ground in new approaches and directions. Art, music and the academics were wide open to our exploration, and we took advantage of the opportunities. The many extra-curricular clubs and activities that we involved ourselves in, allowed us to expand the dimensions of our personalities, as well as our knowledge of the world around us.

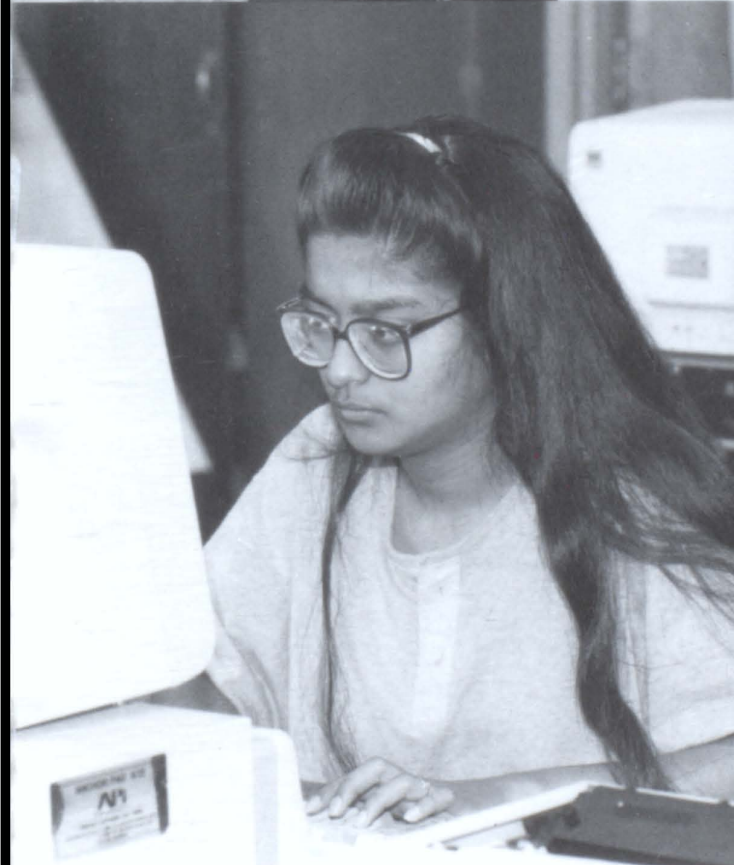

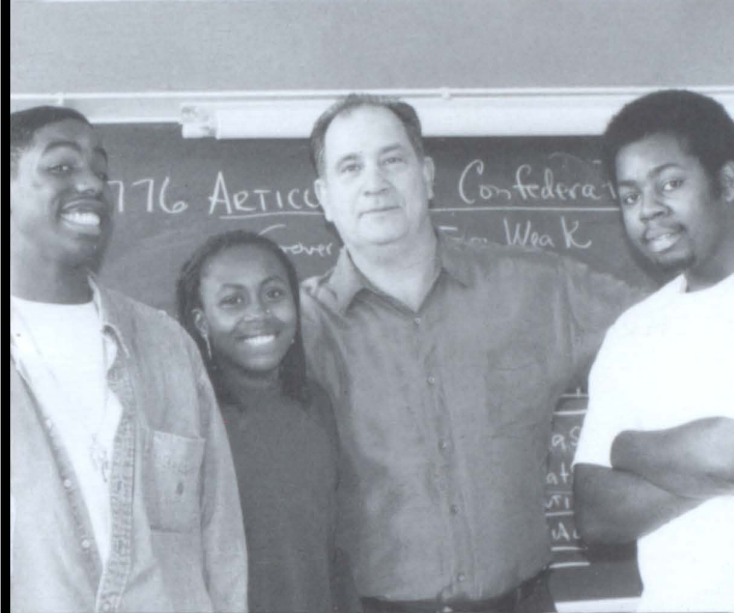

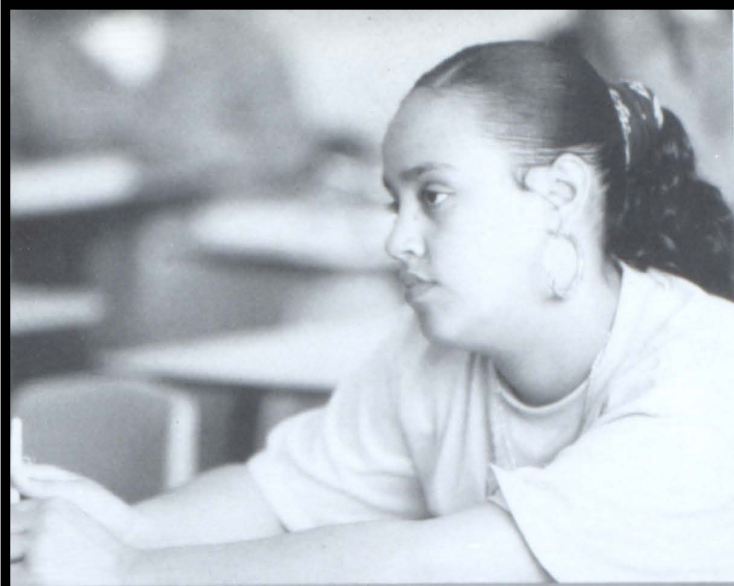

So now as we declare our final farewells to Barringer, let us not forget how far we've ventured, the maturation that has occurred, the friendships we've cultivated, the teachers we've befriended, the memories we've shared, and the many Breaking Point's we've experienced. Let us now continue on to the future as successful graduates of Barringer, realizing that this accomplishment is just one more plateau in our lifelong journey.

BHS COLLEGE FAIR

On November 22, 1996, all BHS seniors were invited to attend the College Fair which took place in the schools library. Included with a large variety of college choices, students got an opportunity to talk to college recruiters to learn more about the schools displayed before them, and the advantages that each college holds for the student's future.

BHS THANKSGIVING DRIVE

Members of the Student Council and the Future Teachers Club along with Mr. Alvarez, Ms. Smith, and Ms. Ceceri at the Thanksgiving Drive that afternoon.

On Wednesday, November 23, 1996, the Student Council and the Future Teachers Club sponsored the annual BHS Thanksgiving Drive. Approximately 20 baskets were given to needy BHS families.

Students shown are packing and preparing baskets to be distributed and delivered. BHS is always proud to give support to those less fortunate.

Most of the monies for the drive were raised through collections in the school.

Mr. Peters, BHS parental coordinator, coordinates the shopping and contacts community stores in the area.

Special thanks were given to Foodtown Supermarket managed by Mr. Victor Laraccaca. Mr. Laraccaca always donates additional baskets as part of his community service.

The BHS Thanksgiving drive was a success thanks to Mr. Alvarez, Ms. Smith, and Ms. Ceceri.

Members of the student council watch as Mr. Alvarez assists Jarod Matthews with the donated turkey.

SENIOR DANCE, OCTOBER 23, 1996

On Friday, October 23, 1996, at 7:30 p.m., many of Barringer's students showed school spirit by attending the senior party in the cafeteria. Students and even the teachers that were chaparoning the party danced to the excellent music that was being played by the D.J. There was no question that everyone that attended had fun.

Mrs. Joy Immerso, Mr. Ralph Dellano, Paul and Frankie Dellanno, Mr. James Steadman, Mr. Phillip Hamilton, and Tariq Belton smile at the camera.

SENIOR TRIP TO THE PLAY, MACBETH

On November 3, 1996, the English department held a trip to the Pax Amicus Theater to see the famous play by Shakespeare: Macbeth. The theater was in Budd Lake N.J. About thirty of Barringer's students went to go see the play and enjoyed it very much. The seniors commented that the actors were great and that the trouble they had getting there is something that they will never forget. (Included in the trouble was hitting a stop sign, crashing into a mailbox, and getting lost on the way there.) Truly this trip is something that Shakespeare would have never thought of writing.

BHS CHRISTMAS CONCERT

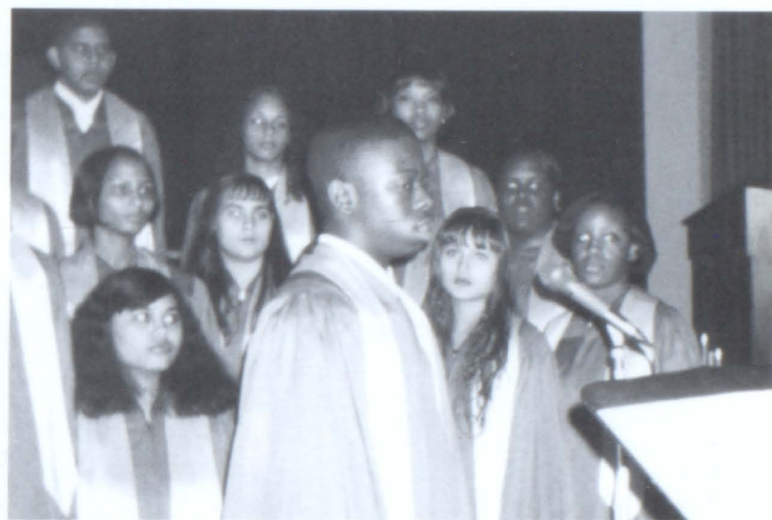

Ms. Herring's Choir sings Jubilate Deo, a popular African hymn.

On Friday night, December 13, 1996, BHS held its annual Christmas Concert.

The band and chorus performed their talents before Barringer's faculty, parents, and young women and men. The night was truly melodious as the chorus sang beautiful songs and the band performed Christmas songs as well as other popular tunes. It was a night of harmony and joy.

The band plays the popular song: Killing Me Softly.

Isaac Odusanya sings O come Emanuel.

Quadera Chapell, Anthony Williams, Tamica Cole, and Alumnis Bryan Issac and Hollaster Hunter sing One Sweet Day.

The band was getting ready to perform another selection.

TALENT ELECTRIFIES THE CROWD!

The tree Tina Turner impersonators, in their unique outfits, won first place in the Best Costumes category.

William Woodard singing "Straight Ballin'", by 2 Pac.

On Friday November 1, 1996, the Drama Club presented it's annual Talent Show. It was a successful production, where many talented students performed their acts before a huge and exhuberant crowd. The format consisted of 6 categories: Drama, Solos, Groups, Duets, Rap, and Best Costume.

The participants in this year's Talent Show did a tremendous job in exhibiting their abilities. They gave it their best by performing before an eager and cooperative audience.

The first place winners in the group category with "The Things We Do For Love".

BHS TALENT SHOW

Two of the outstanding performers, Anthony W. and Danille B. excite the audience with their singing.

Yolanda Johnson and Herman Jones win 2nd place in Duets.

With their second place winning performances, the act of "Kung Fu Fighting" caused the audience to burst out in laughter.

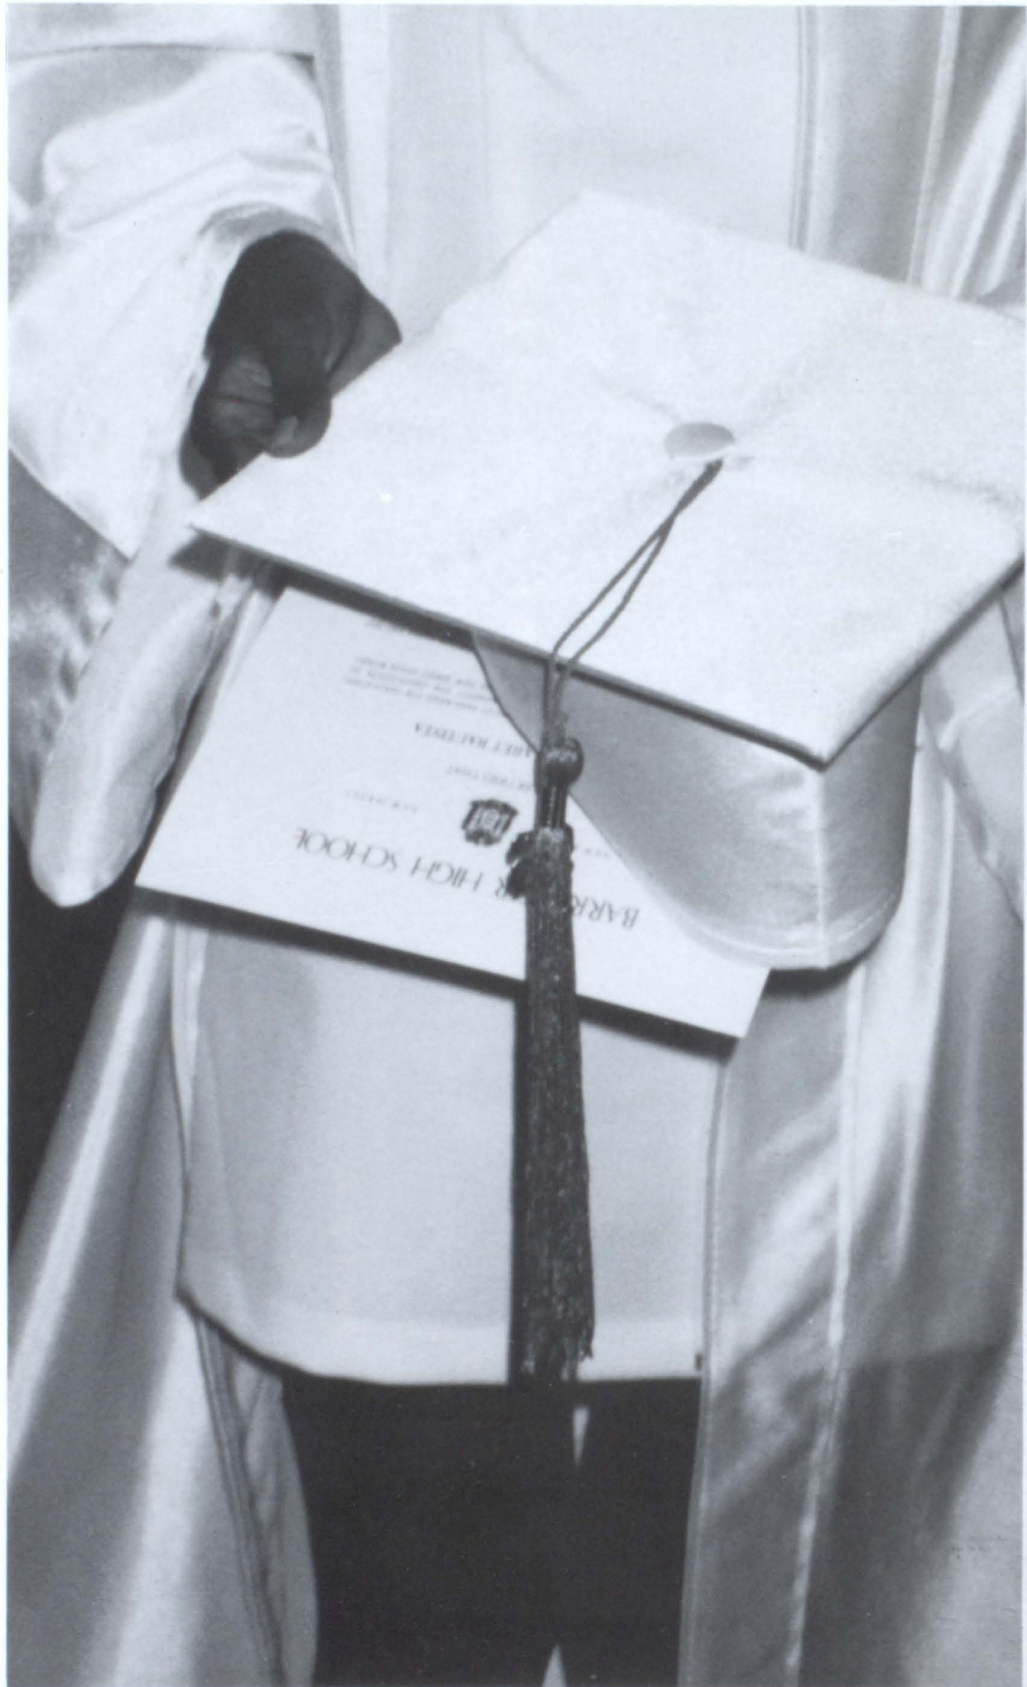

Julio and his comrades after a terrific display of their talent.

WE HAVE REACHED

As parents and other family members are fussing to take a photo of you in your cap and gown, in your mind you're thinking, "This is it. I finally made it!" I'm graduating from Barringer High School.

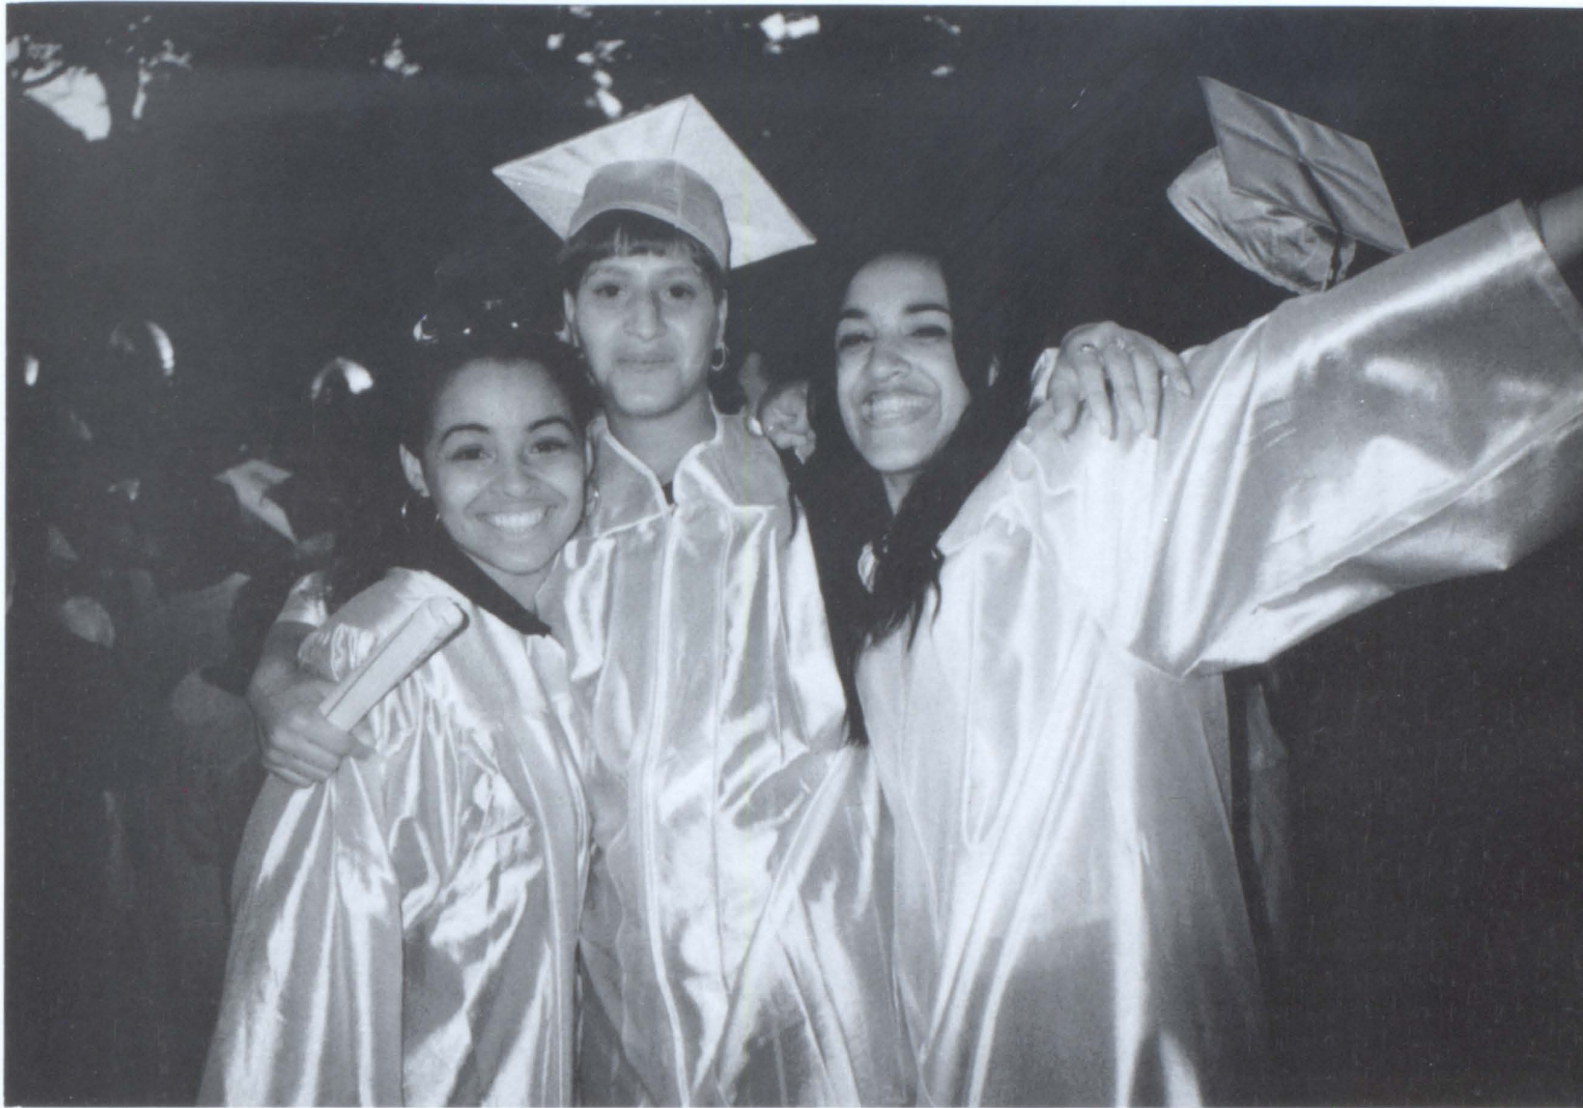

Our final farewell is not just about departing from Barringer, but also leaving behind all the unforgettable moments we shared with our classmates, and teachers. And as we leave the experiences of the last 4 years behind, we realize that our life may be different from now on, but we will never forget from where we came.

Sports equipment is very expensive, and the school budget for sports related paraphenilia is not adequate to cover all the costs of a full season. So, to raise money for the various sporting events at Barringer, the Booster club was established. Whenever Barringer hosts a home game, members of this club sell candy, cookies, and soft drinks so that the athletic department can purchase uniforms, and other sports equipment. They also support team players with their cheering. The Booster club advisor is Mrs. Habeeb Raoof Malik.

Even though the Barringer Girls Basketball team did not have a terrific season, they showed great effort. They were a very quick team, which helped them out tremendously. Not only that, but their defense this year was outstanding. A great step up from last year. Their weaknesses were foul-shooting, and the point guard who did not distribute the ball well, and therefore did not control the game. According to the coach, this season was very successful in terms of increasing team morale and confidence among each other.

Outdoor Track is a sport that requires endurance, speed, and maintaining exceptional conditioning. The Barringer track team showed most of these qualities in all of their races during the season. The strength of the team were the relay teams and the sprinters. Although long distance runners were the team's major weakness, the coach hopes to improve their endurance. Aspirations for next year are to beat the toughest opponents.

PRINCIPAL

Congratulations to the class of 1997 on your achievements. The self-discipline and effort that you exhibited at Barringer High School will enable you to successfully meet the challenge of the 21st century.

Remember, in different times, that there are no easy answers or quick solutions-that anything which is worthwhile seems to come only through hard work.

With steadfast determination and a spirit that will not settle for anything less than success, you can accomplish anything you wish.

Best wishes and good luck!
Alan Alvarez, Acting Principal.

Gone... But Not Forgotten

Joseph Iannuzzi

Ralph Dellanno

Frank Antonnaci

He was a familiar sight in the main office, and whenever there was a conflict in the school, he would surely be there to lend a helping hand. Vice-principal Joe Iannuzzi strived to contribute to the education of young adults, and he continued to live up to his dream until his recent death.

After graduating from Barringer in 1958, Mr. Iannuzzi entered Farleigh Dickinson University where he earned a bachelor of arts degree. He then received his master's degree from Seton Hall University about the time that he began teaching at Newark's Lafayette Street Elementary School.

Mr. Iannuzzi served two terms as an Essex County freeholder, and state monitor in the Hudson County School Superintendent's office before being appointed as vice principal at Barringer in 1987.

Joe Iannuzzi was a founding member, and the first president of the Barringer Alumni Association, which was formed in 1983 to celebrate the 150th anniversary of our school.

Ralph Dellanno and his brother Paul, were like the twin towers of the English department. Known for his wit and his sense of humor, for 26 years, Ralph Dellanno was a popular English teacher at Barringer.

A native of Newark, Mr. Dellanno was not a Barringer graduate, but might as well have been. He was a true blue bear loyalist.

Mr. Dellanno attended St. Peter's College in Jersey City and earned a bachelor of arts degree in English.

He was a former assistant football coach at Manchester High School in Haledon and coached for the Long Valley Raiders Little League Football. Ralph Dellanno later became assistant coach under Frank Antonacci, and he was instrumental in the remarkable 1986 season when Barringer chalked up the best school record in the decade.

Football player, history teacher, football head coach, guidance counselor, these are all the hats Frank Antonacci wore at Barringer. When he was a student at Barringer, he won city and state honors as a bruising fullback, under the infamous coach Anthony Naporano.

Mr. Antonacci began his 33 year teaching career as a social studies teacher at Barringer, but quickly moved into the guidance department where he remained before becoming chairman of the guidance department in 1990.

While he had a brief stint as assistant basketball coach at Barringer, his heart was still in the game of football, and he continued this career by coaching football at Seton Hall University, and Upsala College after school.

In 1983, Mr. Antonacci took over the job as the varsity football coach at Barringer, which he held for seven years. As head coach, he led the 1986 team to the state playoff berth. Barringer finished the season with an outstanding 8-2 record.

The deaths of Frank Antonacci, Ralph Dellanno, and Joe Iannuzzi have left an impact on our Barringer family that cannot be underestimated. These were three professional educators who dedicated their lives to the students of Barringer High School. They have left an eternal legacy in the thousands of individuals whose lives they have affected.

They are examples of what hard working, decent and caring people can accomplish. They will always be with us.

Alan Alvarez, Principal

A Tribute To Joseph L. Iannuzzi 1941-1997

Barringer High School was preparing for the transition of Mr. Joseph Iannuzzi from celebrated vice principal to retiree. Periodically, he would remind us good-naturedly that his tenure at Barringer would end soon as he would say: "Out the gate in '98!" We planned and began to put in place practices and procedures that would perpetuate his legacy of order and organization. We were so sure that he would lead and supervise the transition. Suddenly, and abruptly, we lost him. How could the absence of one presence be felt so deeply? How? "Let me count the ways..."

Mr. Iannuzzi never disguised or hid his feelings or opinions on matters that were important to him.

He was fiercely loyal to his family, friends and the institution that was so much a part of his life-Barringer High School where he prominently displayed his characteristic leadership-a leadership that brought positive results to the high school he loved so much.

He motivated us, students and staff, friend and critic to think on many levels and engendered our respect in the challenge.

He enriched our lives with his sense of style, love of life, his wonderful sense of humor, and the high standards he set for himself and others.

Although the manner was less gentle than the nature, he was, indeed, a "prince." With the words of the poet, George Santayana, who so aptly wrote:

With you, a part of us has passed away...but yet we'll treasure in our memories (your) gifts...For these once ours, our lives are rich with these...

We say good-bye Mr. "I"-Yes, we will miss you.

Victoria Michaels, Dr. Leonard Pugliese Vice Principals, BHS.

My Brother Ralph

Ralph Dellanno was a giant of a man as gentle as he was tall. He was dedicated to his job and loved his students. He was always willing to help anyone, do anything. He was always preparing for class. Our school has lost a tremendous asset. This void will never be filled. He will be missed more than anyone can imagine. I will miss our morning coffee conferences, the security of knowing he's only down the hall. We will never hear any more corny jokes or his lifting voice telling students to get to class. God has retrieved his treasure; your memory will live in our hearts forever. We don't appreciate what we have until we lose it. Rest in peace my beloved brother.

Love Paul

Frank and Ralph were colleagues and friends of mine for many years. Our relationship went beyond that of just members of the same faculty. For eight years we coached football together. This formed a lasting bond among us.

I will never forget the pride we all felt after the 1986 season. We finished up with 8 wins and 2 losses, a trip to the state playoffs against Union, followed by an award ceremony at the city council. None of the losses before or after that could dismiss the memory of how we felt as a coaching staff during that glorious season. Frank, Ralph, and Pat Washam and I experienced a feeling only members of the coaching fraternity can truly understand.

Until the day comes when we can laugh and smile about that season together I will always treasure the memory. For us it was truly one moment in time.

Your friend forever, Vinnie Immerso

My memories, experiences, and 13 wonderful years of knowing Ralph Dellanno.

By: Joy Immerso

Ralph was always there when I needed him. If he knew it was something serious he would put his arms around me and let me cry. How secure I felt, even though he had to bend himself like a pretzel to reach my height. He knew all the answers, whether he really did or not, he certainly made it sound believable. His chin would rest on his hand and that devilish smirk would be on his face. He was a big kid always telling jokes, the corniest jokes you ever heard and he'd wait to see if you got it. He would laugh at the dumb expression on my face because many of the jokes I didn't get.

Ralph, you always had all the answers, the jokes, the smiles, the warmth, affection and mostly how we shared how important your family was to you.

I love you Ralph, and I am going to miss you very much, but I know you are in a better place, with God, to protect you from all harm. Watch over your family, friends and students, and give us all the strength we are going to need to accept this until we meet again one day.

In memory of Iannuzzi, Dellanno and Antonacci

Do not stand at the grave and weep

I am not there, I do not sleep

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints in snow

I am the sun light in ripened grain

I am the gentle autumn rain

When you awaken in the morning hush

I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight

I am the soft star that shines at night

Do not stand at my grave and cry

I am not there, I did not die.

ALWAYS AND FOREVER

On May 23, 1997, as the sun was slowly setting, a night that they had long waited for: PROM NIGHT.

The Senior Prom is not just a dance but a night to remember. Couples danced to the D.J.'s music, and shared their last official senior gathering before graduation. The memory of this special night was sure to be captured as the seniors lined up to get their picture taken by the photographer. As peace and happiness fill the air, no one seems to realize that this night is one of their very last nights that they will spend together as classmates. The prom will forever be remembered by the seniors of the class of 1997 as one of the many Breaking Points of their lives.

The Breaking Point

ONE MORE MOUNTAIN by Allen Koepke
There are times in our lives when things just don't seem right; The calm becomes the storm, the light fades into night. We try moving forward, afraid of looking back; Searching in our souls to find the courage that we lack.

It's then we realize through hardship we can grow;

Casting off despair, the spark begins to glow.
Harvesting the seeds of hope, faith renews our sight;

Taking on each struggle, we can say with all our might,

Give me one more mountain to climb, I'll carry the light, I'll lead the way. Give me one more mountain to climb. I'll lift my eyes to a brand new day.

With confidence and strength, with purpose in our life;

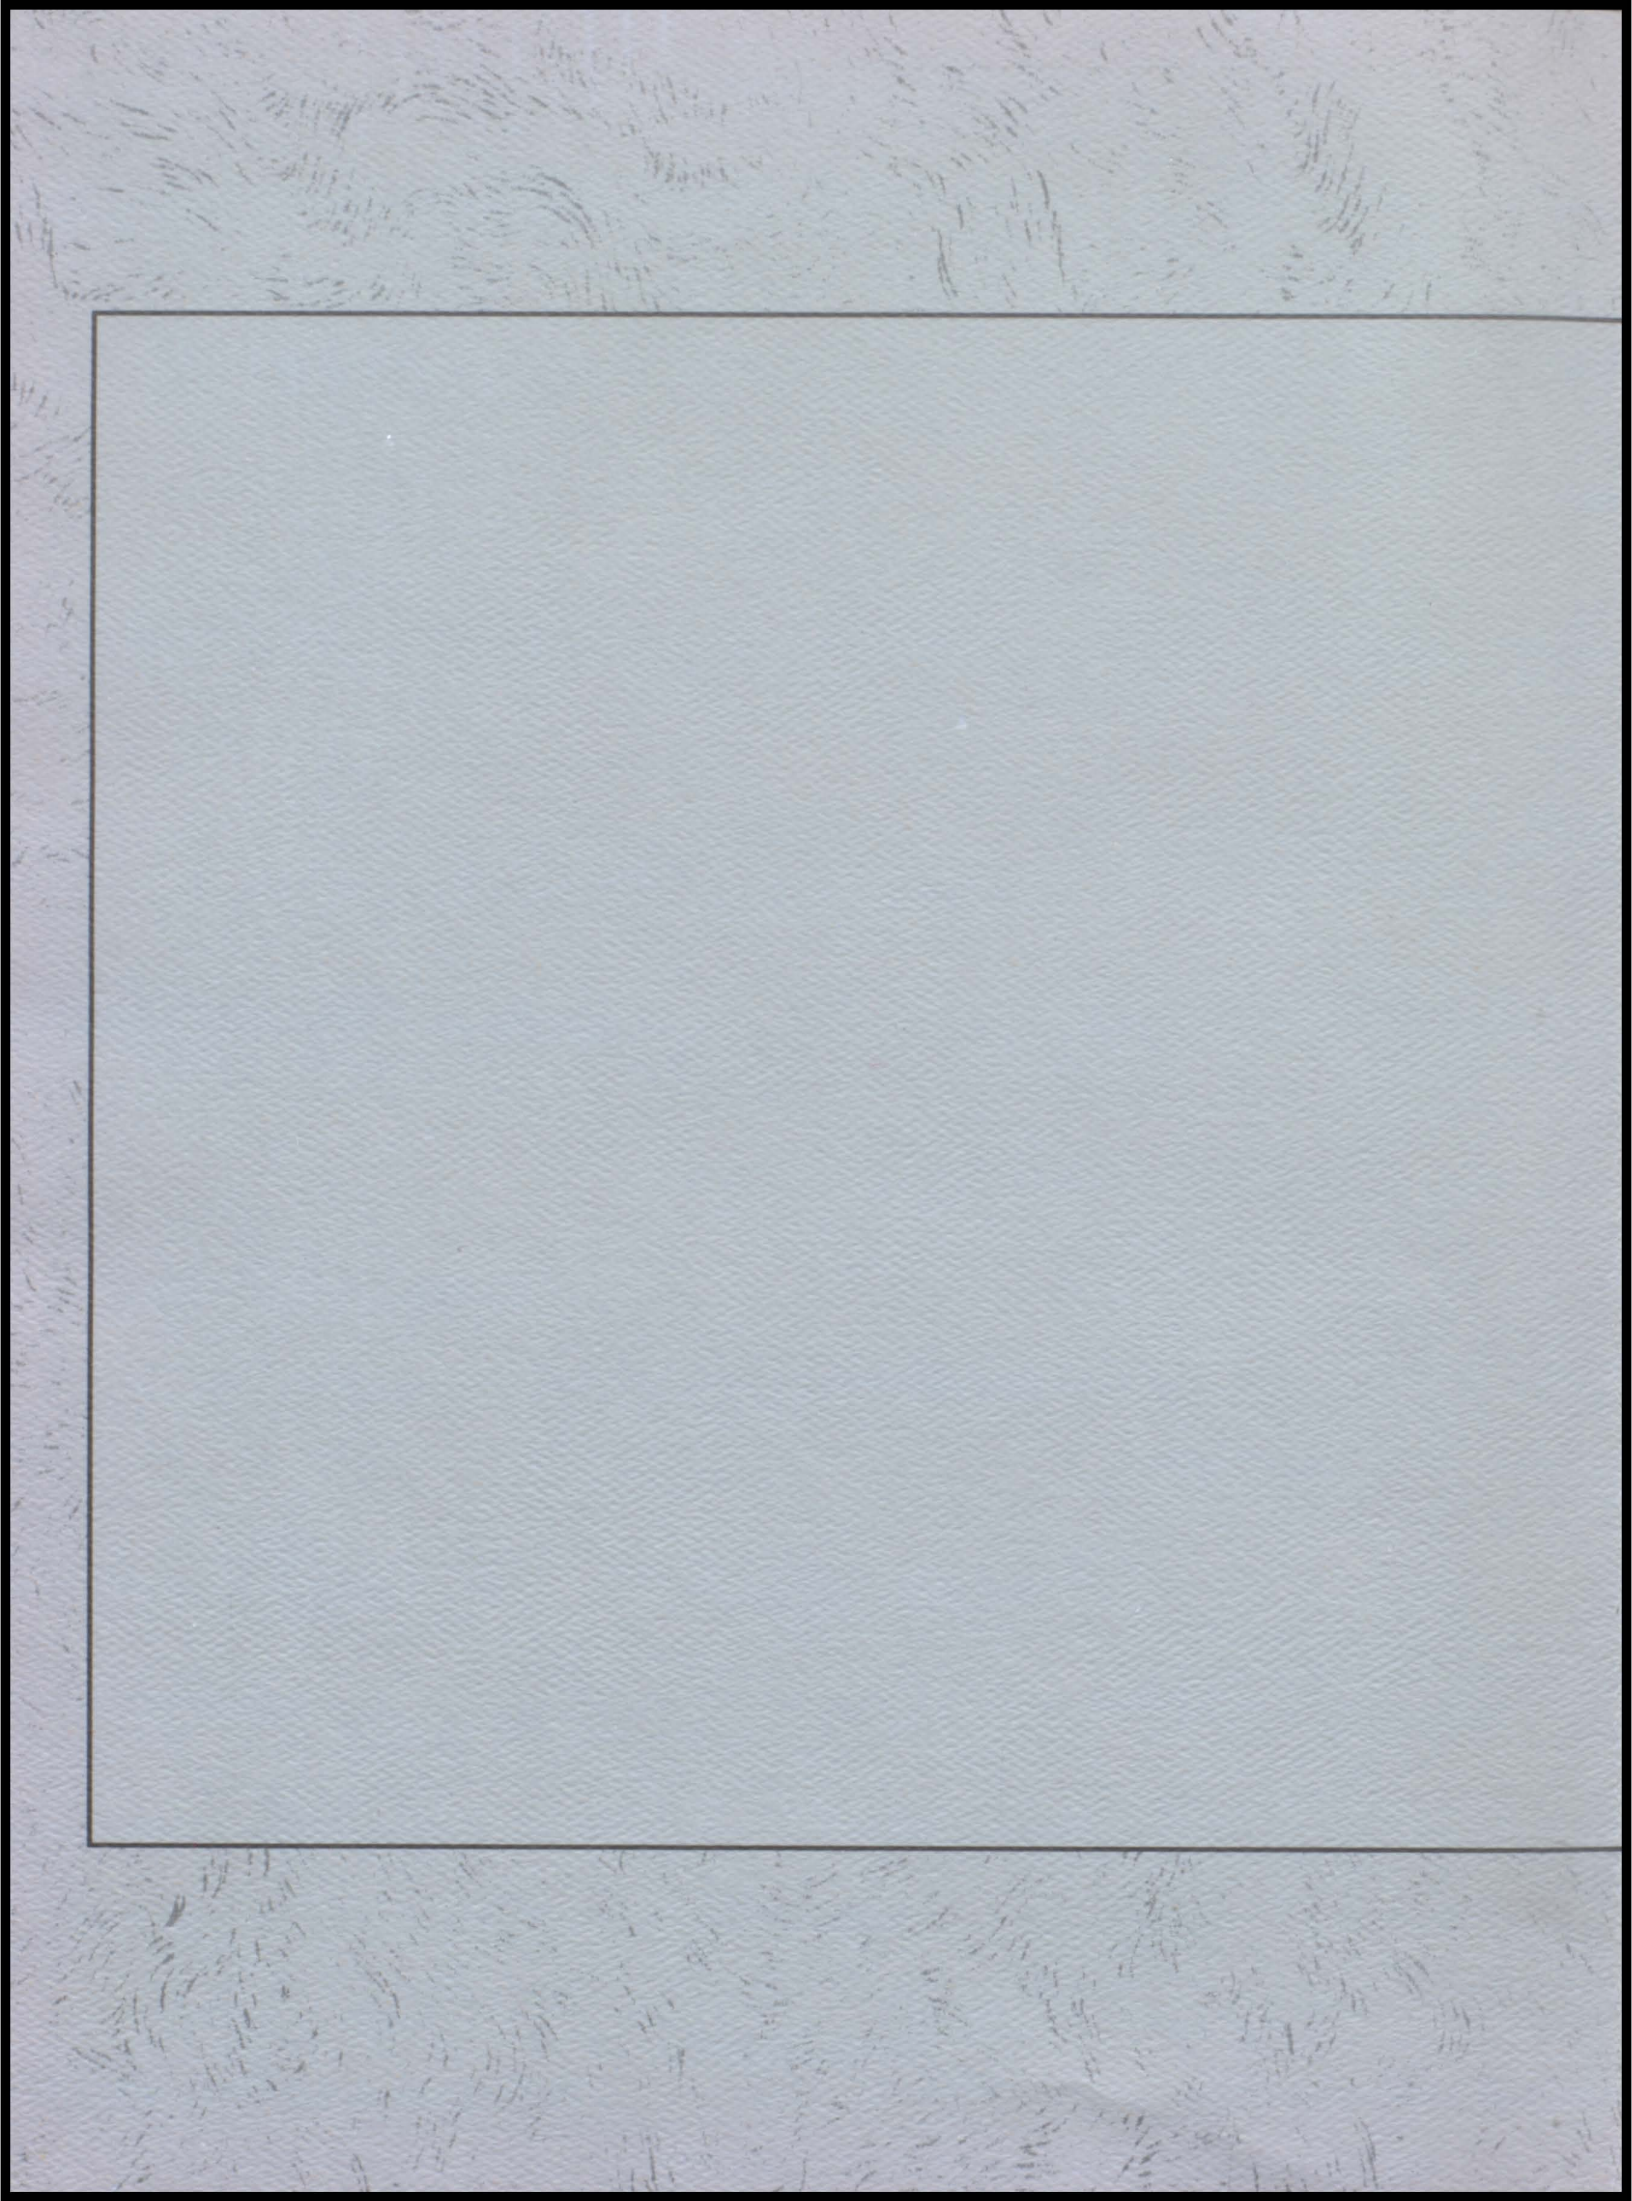

The path of love is chosen, on longer and strife. Though problems will surround us and try to cloud our sight;

Just stand up proud and say it loud, "I won't give up the fight!"

Give me one more mountain to climb, I'll carry the light,
I'll lead the way. Give me one more mountain to climb, lift my eyes to a brand new day.

Give me one more mountain, one more mountain, one more mountain to climb!
